ALTO PIANO SOFA

LAURAMERONI
design . collection

Altopiano is a range of sofas that includes the two-seater and three-seater sofas and a large armchair with square legs incorporated to the upholstered part, a “stepped” side profile and square lines with tight covering combined with soft parts.

These features make the product elegant, elaborately detailed and, at the same time, comfortable and inviting. The leather or fabric upholstery covering the whole sofa has been carefully tailored.

The square legs incorporated to the upholstered structure and a seat wider than the standard are the distinguishing elements of this elegant sofa.

Covered with leather or fabric, Altopiano can be combined with cushions of the same collections, to offer our clients the most comfortable solution.

Altopiano is available in different dimensions to meet different needs without renouncing to an elegant design.

The isle sofa permits a versatile use, designed for customers who want a product that conveys an extraordinary sense of comfort.

The essentiality of its lines and the refinement of its design give Alto Piano a style of contemporary elegance.

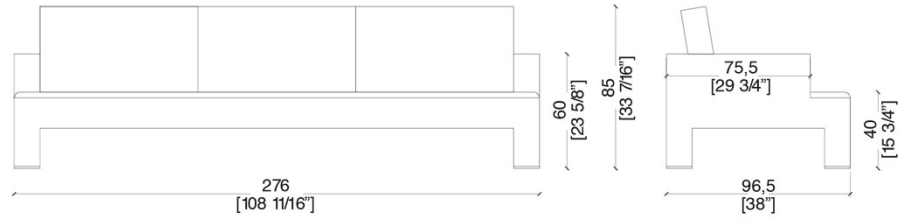

Essential geometrical lines define Altopiano design, for all those clients who prefer rigor and simplicity.
