ALTO PIANO SOFA

LAURAMERONI
design . collection

Altopiano is a range of sofas that includes the two-seater and three-seater sofas and a large armchair with square legs incorporated to the upholstered part, a “stepped” side profile and square lines with tight covering combined with soft parts.

These features make the product elegant, elaborately detailed and, at the same time, comfortable and inviting. The leather or fabric upholstery covering the whole sofa has been carefully tailored.

Simple lines and high-quality materials distinguish this sofa covered with leather or fabric and available in different dimensions.

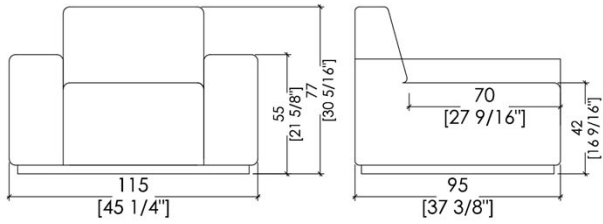

The sofa can be realized also without armrests and can be combined with two different base models: the metal legs or the wooden base Moderato.

The wide range of fabrics in different colors and leathers allows to realize a sofa that meet the taste of every single client.
