TATAMI WALL PANEL SYSTEM

LAURAMERONI
design . collection

Tatami is a modern wall paneling system which features a new finish created by combining a special lacquering with a random textured three-dimensional base layer.

By combining this refined finish with a simple geometric pattern, designers and architects can be inspired to cover walls, doors and even cabinets with a great aesthetic impact.

LUXURY DECOR & BESPOKE SOLUTIONS

Tatami is made of three different design modules that can be combined to create a wide number of possible solutions for a creative wall decoration.

Tatami panels are available in four finishes which will give a touch of light to every interior design project.

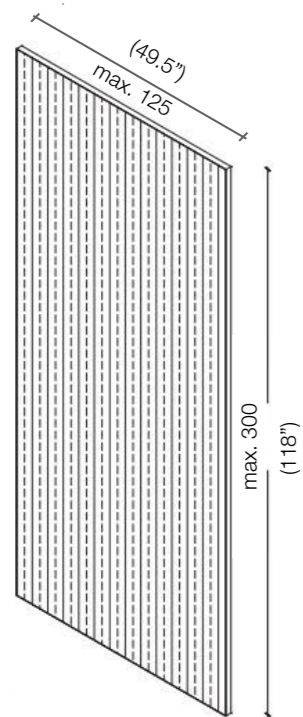

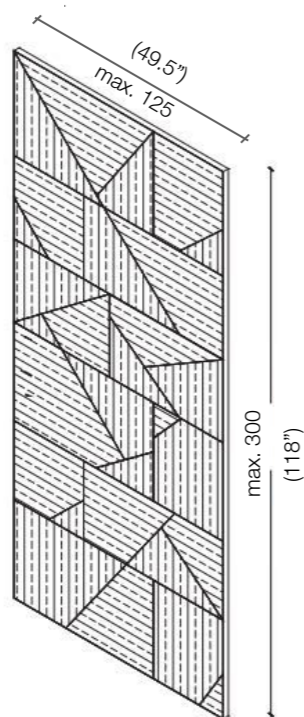

Tatami can combine more than one color in each module thus creating decorative wall of great aesthetic impact.

It can also create a very pleasant and refined wall decoration when used in single color, tone-on-tone.

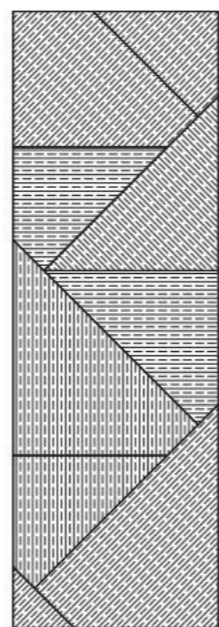

Tatami system can also feature a backlit niche and a shelving system which perfectly integrates with this modern wall paneling
