TUBO TAVOLO MF 35

LAURAMERONI
design ■ collection

Table lamp with structure in satin natural brass and adjustable upper disc.

MF 35 is a lamp designed to be placed in both houses and offices.

The adjustable upper disc permits to direct the light in a specific direction and to change its intensity according to the client's needs.

The simply yet ingenious mechanism of the adjustable disc creates unique effects.

Tubo tavolo combines flexibility and elegance in a single lamp. The disc allows to modify the light direction and to change its intensity according to different needs.

Simple shapes meet high-quality materials for an astonishing result. The distinguishing shape is the result of our designer's creativity combined with the hand-crafted production.

The distinguishing features of this lamp are the use of satin brass and the introduction of the adjustable disc.
