ART COLLECTION - Sesel

LAURAMERONI
design . collection

Element made of cast bronze whose surfaces and irregular brushing are the result of the handmade realization of every single piece. Individually or combined, they can be used as furniture knobs, handles for doors, coat hangers or as artistic elements. Each element can be rotated freely on the fastening axis to create endless compositions.

These objects are inspired by the Seychelles' granite rock formations and by the designers' passion for boulders and stones, which they love to collect.

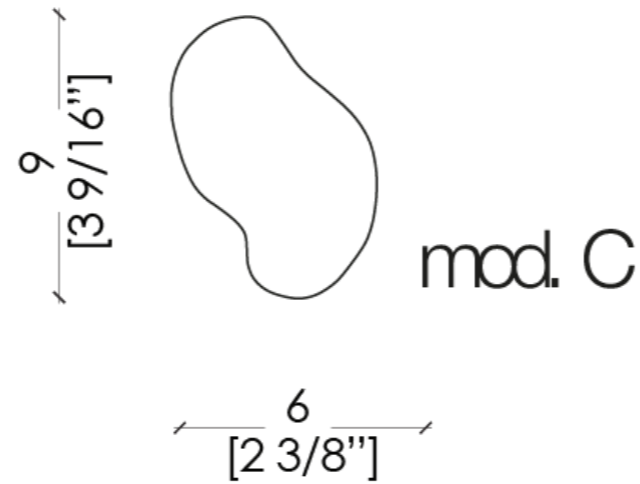

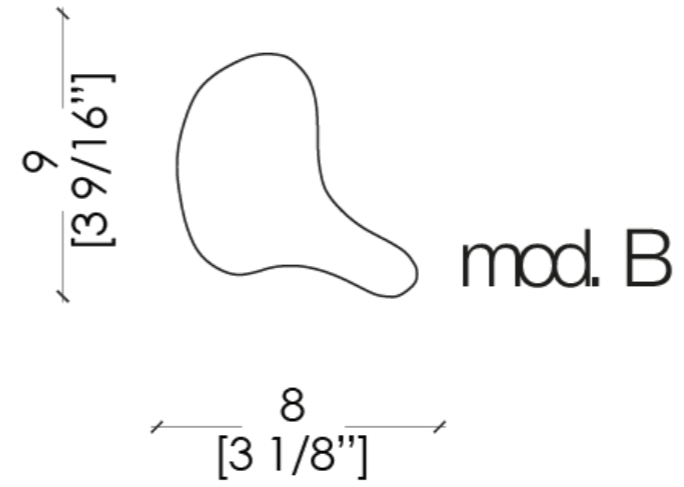

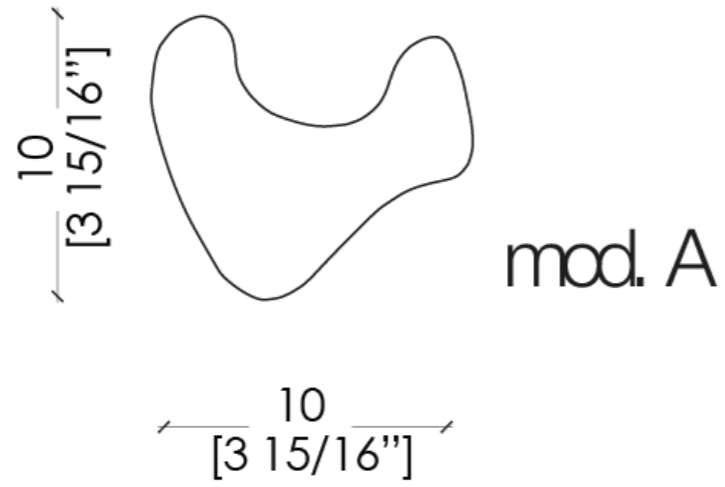

The combination and overlap of the fabrics is expertly interpreted by our master craftsmen to create a patchwork that is never the same but with a great visual impact.

The liquid metal spread on the fabrics amplifies the originality of the geometric designs and overlaps, giving the wall an aspect of great originality.
