BD12 TABLE

LAURAMERONI
design . collection

Table with wooden top and bronzed brass legs. This table can be made in all the sample book woods and in all RAL colors with brushed matt lacquered finish and in special dimensions. It is available in the rectangular, elliptical, round and square versions.

BD 12 is a modern table in which geometrical shapes are the characterizing element. At the same time, the particular choice of the inclined brass legs gives dynamicity and movement to the table as a whole.

A perfect solution for all those customers who are interested in modern design.

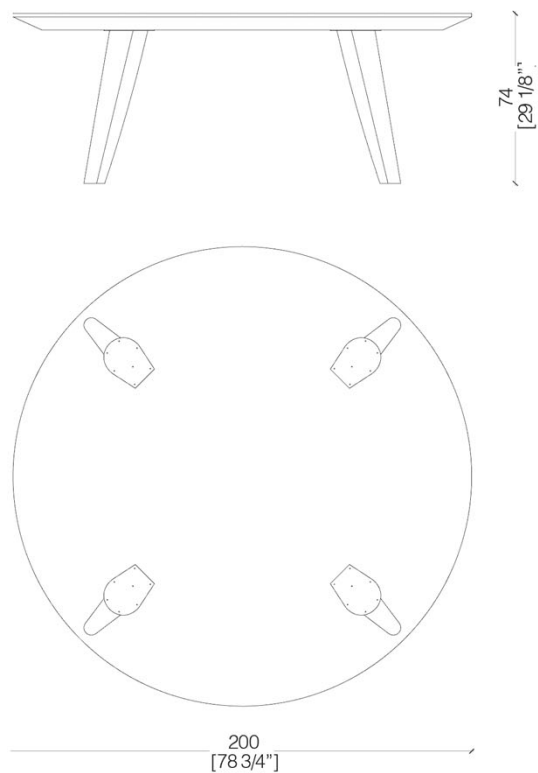

BD 12 is a rectangular table with top available in all wood essences or brushed matt lacquered in all RAL colors.

This table is also available in the elliptical version, BD 12/E, and in special dimensions: a perfect balance of shapes and materials.

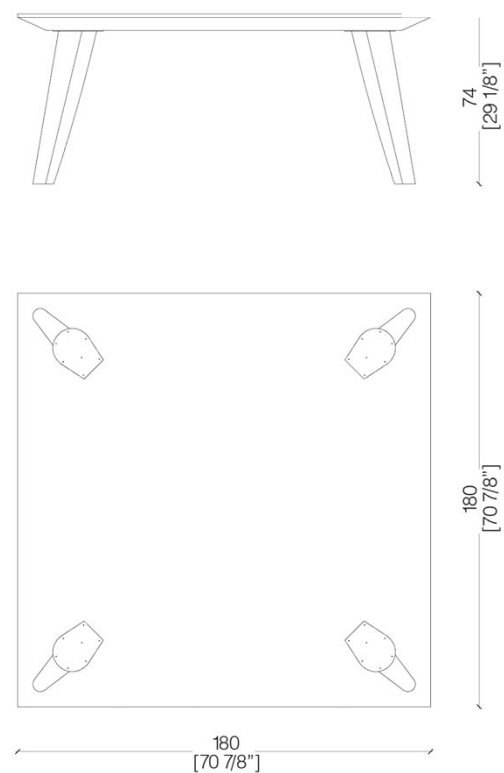

The inclined brass legs are the distinctive element that makes this table immediately recognizable.

BD 12/T is the round version of this sophisticated table, characterized by soft elegant lines.
