ONDA WALL PANEL SYSTEM

LAURAMERONI
design . collection

Made to measure wood veneered board with horizontal or vertical Onda carving on the sight side, available in all woods and finishes of the collection and with integrated hinged or sliding doors.

The sinuous carving, designed by Rizzato and realized by skilful craftsmen, emphasizes the elegance of the environment where these panels are placed.

The characteristic design of Onda panels exemplifies the meticulous attention to surface treatment.

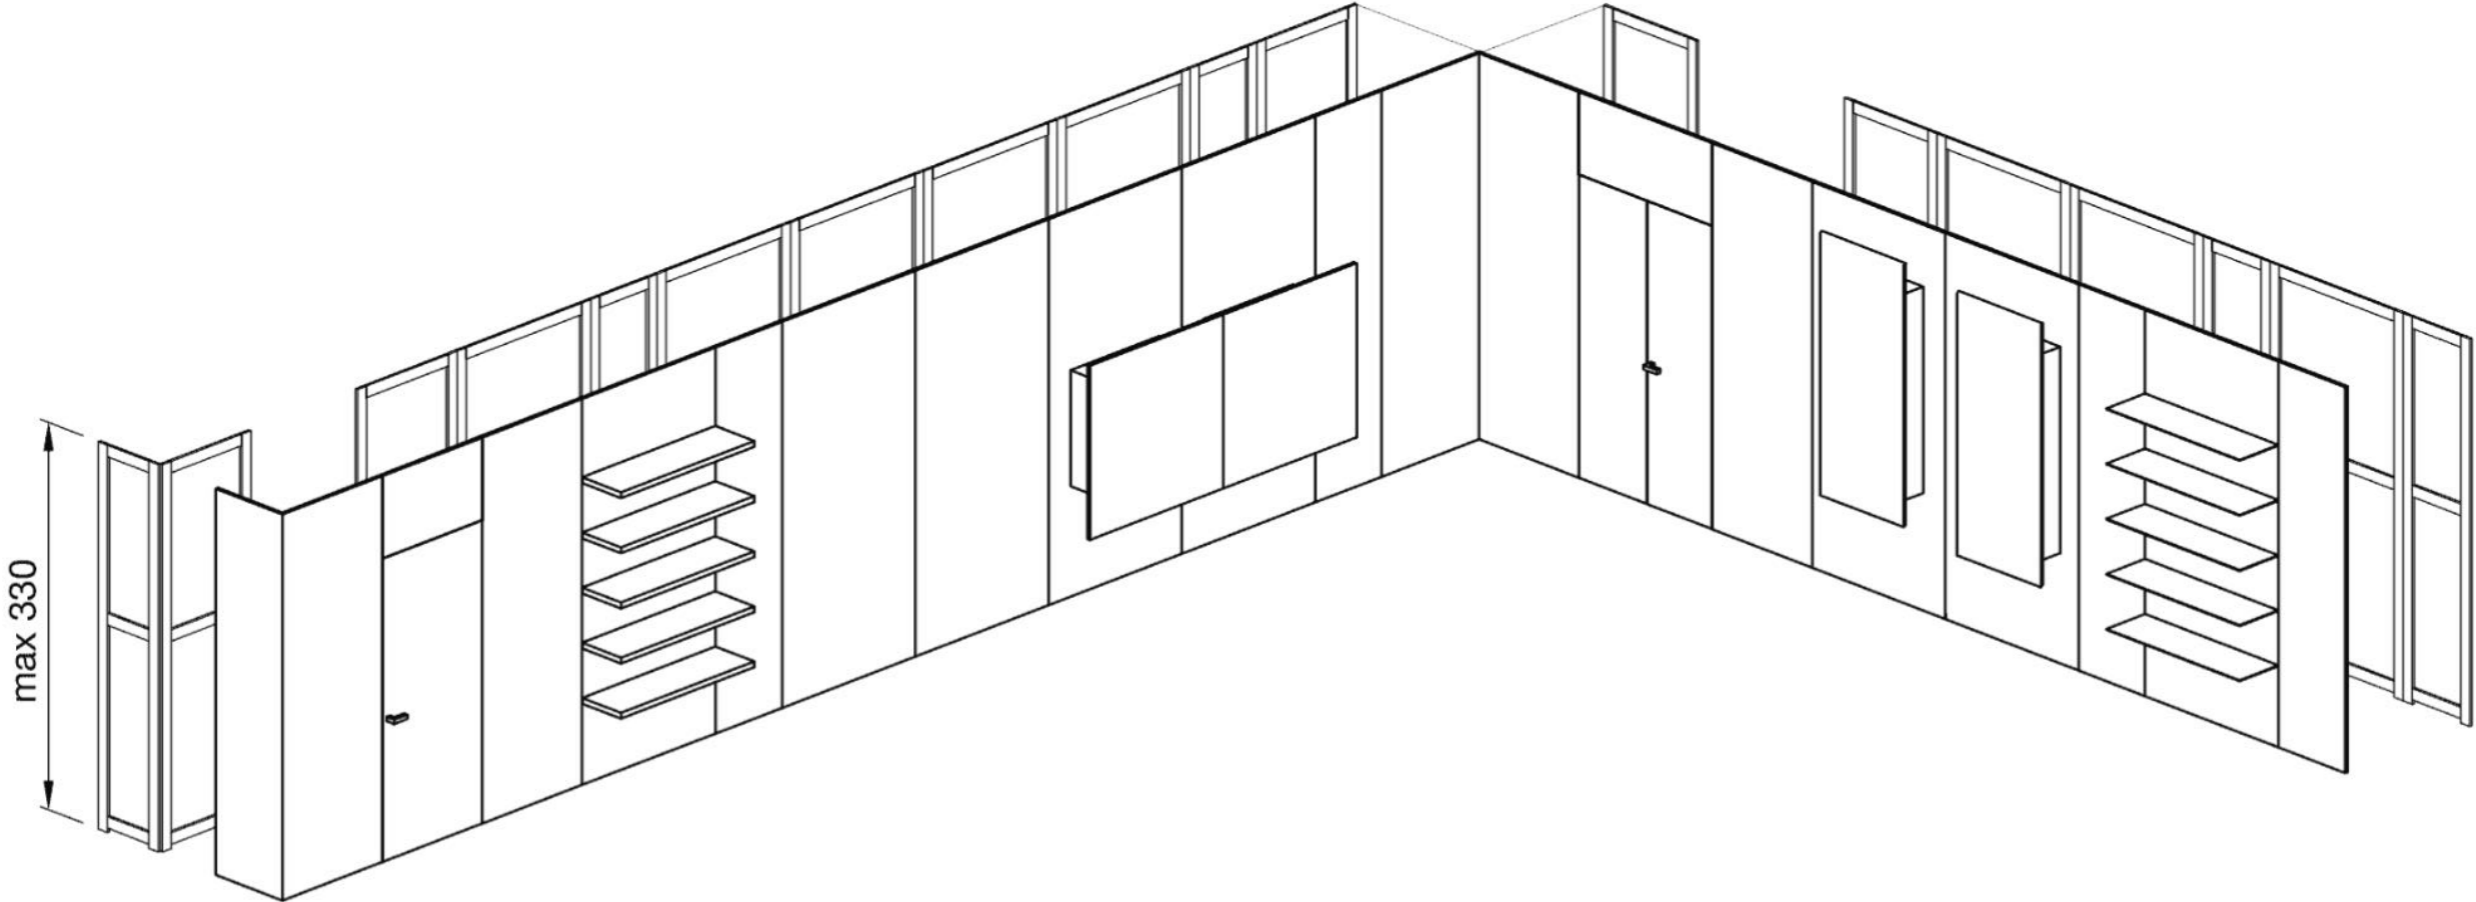

Made to measure Onda Wall Panels are immediately recognizable and are available in all wood essences of the collection or lacquered in all RAL colors.

Innovative technological solutions can be combined to the wall panels, such as the monitor with integrated mirror.

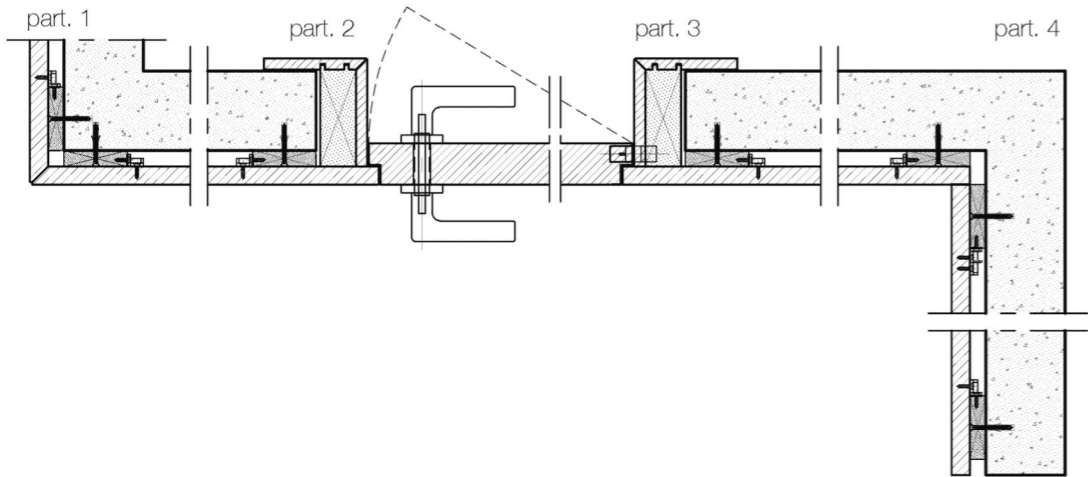

Onda Collection is available also in combination with integrated hinged or sliding doors with the same carving to create a sophisticated system.
