POE COLLECTION – POE DESK

LAURAMERONI
design . collection

Family of desks with round shaped top and legs with ovoidal section, available in all plain woods of our collection, with shaded glossy lacquered top and with legs covered in black rye-straw.

POE escritorios stem from the desire to design a family of desks for contemplation, working hours, or moments dedicated to personal passions. The rounded shape of the top conveys the idea of meditation and introspection while the legs create a precious effect and gently connect to the table top. Inspired by the antique escritorios, reinterpreted with essentiality and lightness, they may stand in the middle of a room or in a smaller private corner, placed in any orientation.

Poe desk is inspired by the antique escritorios, reinterpreted with essentiality and lightness.

Poe is a modern desk, elegant and refined, but at the same time minimal, light and essential.

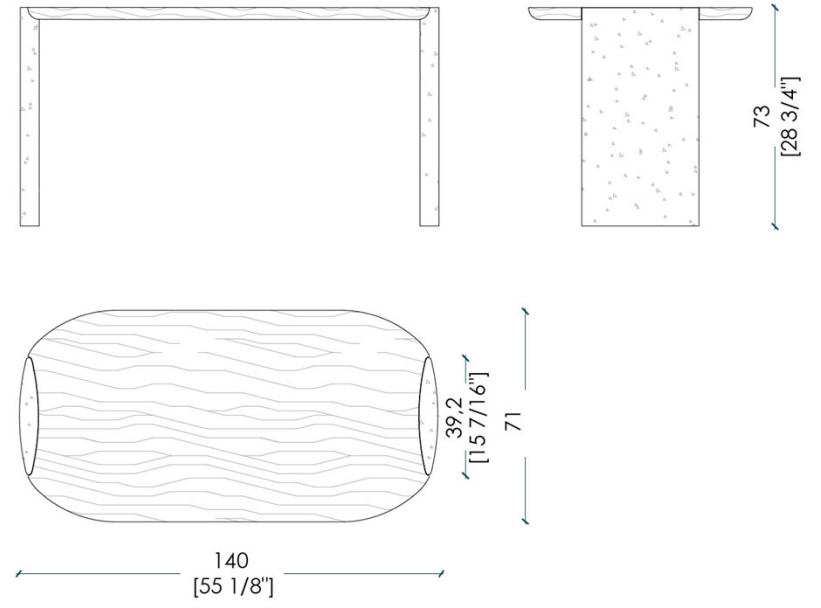

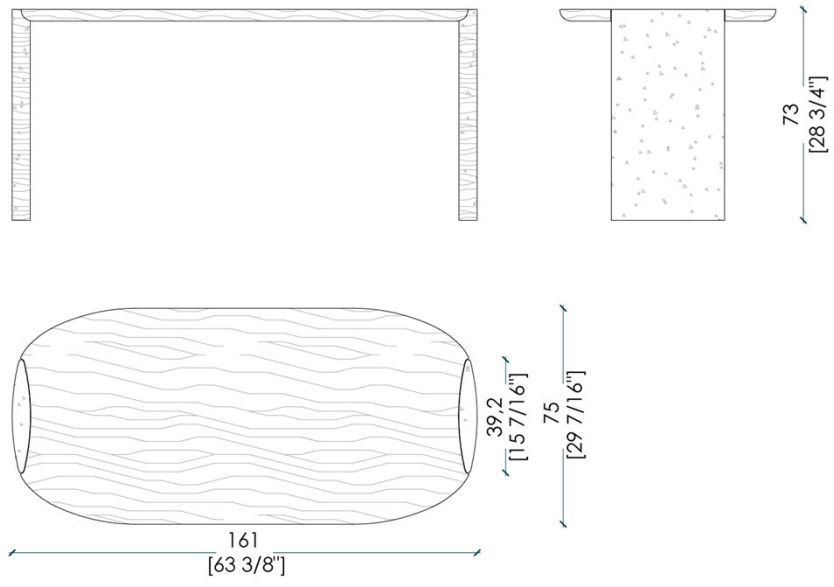

The table top, glossy black lacquered, features a beautiful lighter shade in the middle for an extremely sophisticated effect.

The peculiarity of this modern writing desk is the table top that sinuously embraces the leg, with a refined but elegant design.

Poe desks with hand-crafted legs in black rye-straw create an unrepeatable play of light and unique color shades

Poe is designed for contemplation, working hours, or moments dedicated to personal passions.
