OUTFIT SHELVING SYSTEM

LAURAMERONI
design . collection

The Freestanding Outfit System is a modern and innovative set of independent and customizable modular elements, proposed as a day storage system. Each element is composed of brushed lacquered sides available in all the wood essences of the collection and LED-equipped shelves, to be combined in many different ways.

The project consists of self-supporting, customizable modules to display objects in an efficient and welcoming way, adapting to the most different architectural needs.

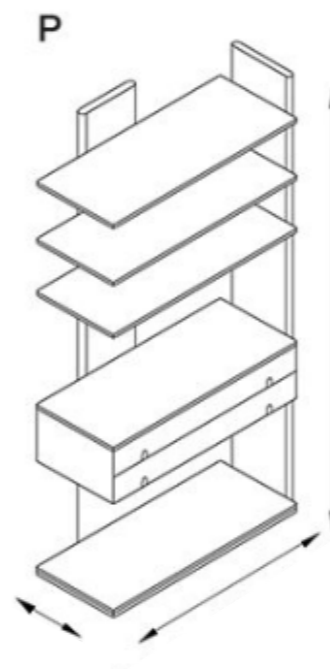

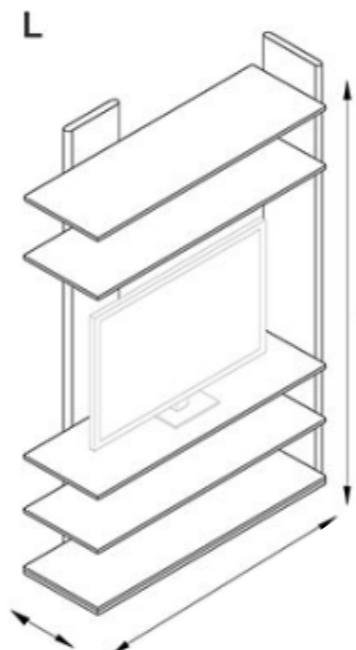

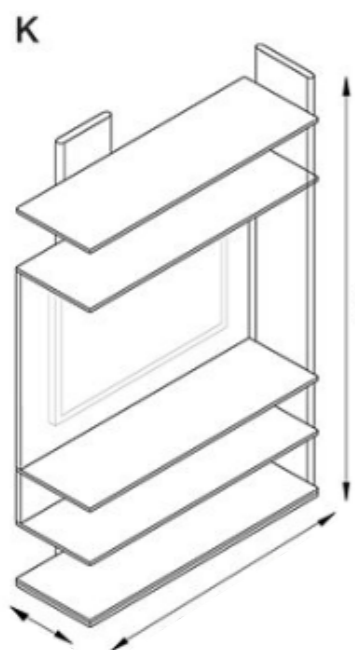

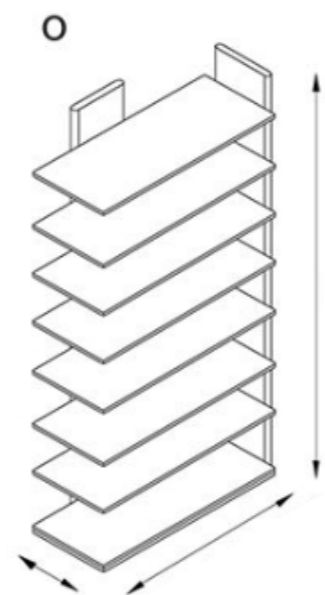

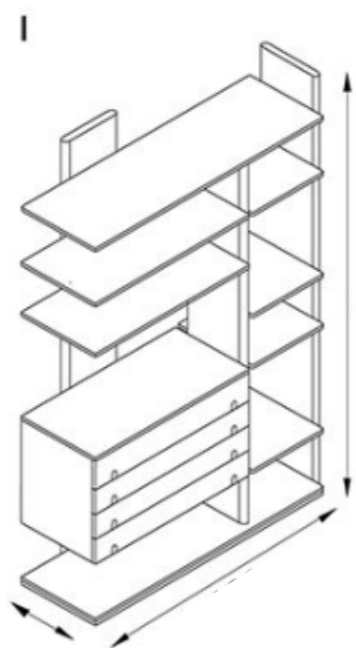

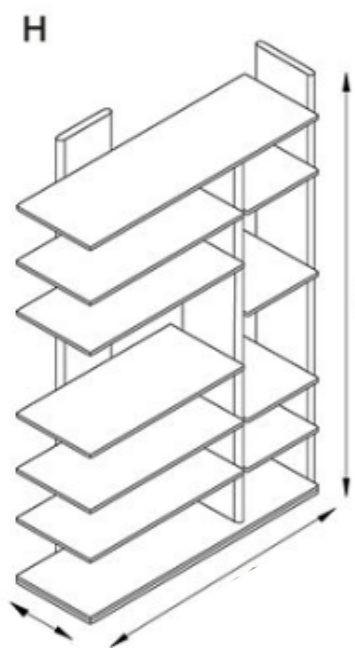

The Freestanding Outfit Day System is a modular shelving system equipped with all the accessories to organize and display object in a functional and elegant way.

In its light simplicity, it combines sophisticated materials and finishes with a practical and functional design, giving life to a product with a strong contemporary character.

The top, bottom and sides of each shelf can be in wood or matt lacquered according to client's need.
