PLAIN PANEL SYSTEM

LAURAMERONI
design . collection

Made to measure wall panels in smooth, lacquered or matte wood, available in all woods and finishes of the collection or in fabric, and with integrated sliding, hinged or pivot doors.

The panels can be used in combination with shelves in veneered or lacquered wood and with shelves in matte lacquered, metal or with an iron finish, as well as integrated with the day or night wardrobe systems of the same collection.

The smooth and pure surface of these panels once again underlines Laurameroni strong vocation for the search for precious and unique raw materials.

Plain panel has an extremely elegant and simple design, meant for those who love the timeless regal beauty of pure, authentic and essential materials.

The Plain system, thanks to the beauty of wood in its purest and most authentic version, separates the environments in a harmonious and elegant way.

Laurameroni proposes flexible solutions, able to always offer new combinations.

The panel system can integrate doors, shelving and cabinets as needed.

The smooth and pure surface of these panels once again underlines the strong vocation for the search for precious and unique raw materials. Also available in fabric, for a personalized design.

In detail, metal shelves in iron finish.

Now also available integrated with the day or night wardrobe systems of the same collection.
